THE LITANY OF DEDICATION

FAITH

Bishop Garber:

We dedicate this marker to the faith of John Brooks Pinney and Melville Beveredge Cox and we also rededicate ourselves to the same faith which sustained them as the pioneer missionaries of the Presbyterian Church and the Methodist Church.

The People:

Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.

By faith, Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should after receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing whither he went.

For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God. (Hebrews 11:1,8,11)

MISSIONARY SPIRIT

Bishop Garber:

We dedicate this marker to the missionary spirit of John Brooks Pinney and Melville Beveredge Cox, and we also rededicate ourselves to a more faithful spirit in carrying the gospel to all parts of the world.

The People:

Go ye therefore and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost;

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you, and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. (Matthew 28:19-20)

VISION

Bishop Garber:

We dedicate this marker to the vision of John Brooks Pinney and Melville Beveredge Cox, and we also rededicate ourselves to the vision that caused these good men to see into the future and to dream dreams of the ultimate victory of the Christian way of life.

The People:

And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions. (Joel 2:28)

CHRISTIAN UNITY

Bishop Garber:

We dedicate this marker to the ecumenical spirit of John Brooks Pinney and Melville Beveredge Cox, and we rededicate ourselves to the prayer of our Saviour that we may be one in brotherly love and in devotion to the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man.

The People:

That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, are in Me and I in Thee, that they be one in Us; that the world may believe that Thou hast sent Me.

And the glory which Thou gavest Me I have given Thee; that they may be one, even as We are One. (John 17:21-22)

SACRIFICE

Bishop Garber:

We dedicate this marker to the sacrificial spirit of John Brooks Pinney and Melville Beveredge Cox and we pray that our Heavenly Father may give to us a portion of the courage and self-denial that characterized the ministry of these two noble men.

The People:

And when He had called the people unto Him with His disciples also, He said unto them, whosoever will come after Me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow Me. (Mark 8:34)

Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends. (John 15:13)

UNFINISHED TASK

Bishop Garber:

We dedicate this marker to the memory of John Brooks Pinney and Melville Beveredge Cox who in broken health and in death appealed to the church to become militant in carrying the gospel to all parts of the world. We now rededicate ourselves to the fulfillment of this unfinished task and to this we pledge our talents, our resources and our lives.

The People:

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; pray ye therefore the Lord of the Harvest, that He will send forth laborers into His harvest. (Matthew 9:37-38)

Also I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, whom shall I send, and who will go for Us? Then said I, Here am I; send me. (Isaiah 6:8)

"HERALDS OF CHRIST"

Heralds of Christ, who bear the King's commands,
Immortal tidings in your mortal hands,
Pass on and carry swift the news ye bring;
Make straight, make straight the highway of the King.

Thro' desert ways, dark fen and deep morass,
Thro' jungles, sluggish seas and mountain pass,
Build ye the road, and falter not nor stay;
Prepare across the earth the King's highway.

Lord, give us faith and strength the road to build,
To see the promise of the day fulfilled,
When war shall be no more and strife shall cease
Upon the highway of the Prince of Peace.

Amen.

---

"O ZION HASTE"

O Zion haste, thy mission high fulfilling,
To tell to all the world that God is Light.
That He who made all nations is not willing
One soul should perish, lost in shades of night.

Give of thy sons to bear the message glorious;
Give of thy wealth to speed them on their way;
Pour out thy soul for them in prayer victorious;
O Zion haste to bring the brighter day.

Chorus: Publish glad tidings, tidings of peace;
Tidings of Jesus, Redemption and release.

Amen.

Memorial Marker Procession

Methodist and Presbyterian clergy and dignitaries marching in procession to the granite marker to Melville B. Cox and John B. Pinney.

Monument

"It is fitting that we dedicate this marker today to those two consecrated men," Judd continued. "In this act of dedication we have the opportunity to rededicate ourselves to the spiritual things, to the long term ideas. Christ's gospel is going to have to be lived and believed in by his followers before we can expect others to believe it."

102 Missionaries

It was pointed out that since Cox and Pinney left Norfolk in 1833 and 1837 respectively, 102 missionaries have gone out from Norfolk to 26 countries all over the world. These missionaries were the representatives of 14 different Protestant denominations.

"The main problem in the world today is who is going to control the so-called undeveloped areas of the world," Judd said. "Our future here in America depends upon what is going on in the minds of those in these particular areas of the earth."

"The Communist party is not asleep. It has its missionaries too. Theirs is a godless mission, but it is winning many converts. It has succeeded in areas where we did not make a sufficient demonstration of our Christian faith to make an indelible impression. The Communist gospel is a materialistic one with no thought of the spirit."

"We as Christians have got to show by our words and deeds that the love of Christ and a belief in the individual as far as freedom is concerned is our guiding faith."

"We must carry on the pattern set by Cox and Pinney in three

Celebration

"I believe the mission of those in social service is not to be concerned solely with patching up the evils of a bad society," Msgr. McDonald said. "They must also be concerned with working toward the better society of the future."

Mrs. Charles T. Abeles, a member of the Board of Directors, was honored by the Service with a certificate of merit for "diligent and unselfish endeavor as ways. First, in our belief in the importance of every living man as a son of God. Second, by taking the word of God to our brothers all over the world who are laboring in despair, and third, by giving testimony to these teachings by living up to the principles of Christianity ourselves."

The ceremonies in the arena and at the memorial marker Sunday were taken part in by many out-of-town clergy and civilian dignitaries of the Methodist and Presbyterian congregations.

counselor in the field of social welfare to Catholic social agencies and the entire community."

Officers Re-Elected

The entire slate of Service officers was re-elected. They are: the Most Rev. Peter L. Ireton, Bishop of Richmond, honorary president; the Most Rev. Joseph H. Hodges, Auxiliary Bishop of Richmond; Father Bannon, executive director; Raymond J. Carroll, president; Edward F. Power, first vice president; Philip L. Russo, second vice president; Mrs. J. Hume Taylor, secretary, and Russell F. Tobin, treasurer.

Service staff members were also honored. They are Miss Betty P. Taylor, case supervisor; Miss Elizabeth C. Crowling, Mrs. Louise Snyders, Miss Deirdre Gilmore and Sister Mary Perpetua, case workers; Miss Josephine Abascal, receptionist; Mrs. Dorothy F. Parker, retired receptionist; Miss Margaret A. Theborge, file clerk, and Miss Marie Schanbacher, office manager.

Richard Furness, a local poet, was reproduced in flowers and berries at a festival in Eyam, England.
